² Source: AC App. Ex. A. This Appendix uses the following abbreviations for the Underwriters as alleged in the Amended Complaint: Countrywide Securities Corporation (“CSC”); Banc of America Securities LLC (“BAS”), Barclays Capital Inc. (“Barclays”), Bear, Stearns & Co. Inc. (“BS”), BNP Paribas Securities Corp. (“BNP”), Citigroup Global Markets Inc. (“CGM”), Credit Suisse Securities (USA) LLC (“CS”), Deutsche Bank Securities Inc. (“DB”), Edward D. Jones & Co., L.P. (“EJ”), Goldman, Sachs & Co. (“GS”), Greenwich Capital Markets, Inc. (now RBS Securities Inc.) (“Greenwich/RBS”); J.P. Morgan Securities Inc. (“JPMSI”), HSBC Securities (USA) Inc. (“HSBC”), Merrill, Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith, Incorporated (“ML”), Morgan Stanley & Co. Incorporated (“MS”), UBS Securities LLC (“UBS”).

³ Source: AC ¶¶ 17, 87-89, 102, 122, 128, 138, 148-55; Exs. 25-28 (Luther, Washington State complaints). As explained in detail in the Countrywide Defendants’ Memorandum, the 1-year statute of limitations began to run for all offerings no later than the filing of the Washington State complaint in June 2008 (and for many MBS offerings at the time of the original Luther action filing in November 2007). See 15 U.S.C. § 77m. Thus, the limitations period expired no later than 2009. See Mem. at 23-24. This action was filed on January 14, 2010.

⁵ Source: AC App. Ex. A; 15 U.S.C. § 77d(3); 17 C.F.R. § 230.174. For Section 12(a)(2) claims, the statute of repose began to run at the date of the sale in the initial offering. See 15 U.S.C. § 77m. This column reflects the last day of the initial offering period, measured as the date of the prospectus supplement plus 40 days (which is derived from prospectus delivery requirements). If the last day of the initial offering period is earlier than January 14, 2007—more than three years prior to the filing of this action—then the statute of repose expired and Section 12(a)(2) claims are time-barred. See Mem. at 24-26.

⁷ Source: AC ¶¶ 21-24. Plaintiffs lack standing to assert claims based on offerings in which at least one of them did not purchase securities. See Mem. at 31-36.

¹ The 427 offerings have a total of 4,396 offered, principal paying, not “exchangeable” AAA securities. A security is considered AAA if it received any of the following ratings at offering, according to prospectus supplements: AAA from S&P, Aaa from Moody’s, or AAA from Fitch. “Exchangeable” securities are certificates that investors can exchange for certain proportions of other offered certificates as described in some of the prospectus supplements. As the prospectus supplements explain, “[t]he maximum initial class certificate balance of each class of exchangeable certificates is set forth in the table [on the cover of the prospectus supplement] but is not included in the aggregate class certificate balance of the certificates offered.” Ex. 7 (CWMB 2007-16 Pro. Supp.) at 2. The 63 securities indicated with an asterisk had losses of less than $100. Original Certificate Balance and Realized Losses are from July 2010 Trustee Reports; other data are from prospectus supplements.
